

The Ohio Council for the Social Studies

AWARDS PROGRAM

The Ohio Council for the Social Studies presents numerous awards annually at its state conference. The awards are intended to recognize and honor outstanding Social Studies educators throughout Ohio. This year's conference will run April 15th-16th at the Worthington Holiday Inn.

OCSS provides awards in the following categories:

- Primary Teacher of the Year (K-2)
- Intermediate Teacher of the Year (3-5)
- Middle School/Junior High School Teacher of the Year (6-8/9)
- High School Teacher of the Year (9-12)
- Professional Educator of the Year
- Presidential Scholarship (Student Teacher Award)

Classroom teacher winners receive a plaque, a year's membership in OCSS, a cash award, and publicity in their hometown newspaper. The Professional Educator of the Year receives a plaque, a year's membership in OCSS, and publicity in his or her hometown newspaper.

The criteria are simple. OCSS wants to honor those social studies educators who demonstrate outstanding dedication, skill, intelligence, and caring in the practice of their art.

Teacher of the year nominees should be Ohio classroom educators currently teaching in the grade level for which they are nominated. Nominees should exemplify excellence in the teaching of social studies skills and content, and their colleagues should recognize them as exceptional social studies practitioners.

Professional Educator of the Year nominees may be administrators, college educators, or other social studies professionals who have made a significant contribution to the field of social studies, and who are recognized by their colleagues as outstanding statewide leaders.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO RECOGNIZE AND HONOR A WORTHY COLLEAGUE!

Just complete one of the attached nomination forms and mail or email it by the deadline.
